

Contents

INTRODUCTION	7
Why is important crossing borders of underground music scenes?	9
Paula Guerra
Tânia Moreira
THEME TUNE 1 MUSIC SCENES, WIDE WORLDS AND MULTIPLE HORIZONS: FROM UNDERGROUND MUSIC TO MAINSTREAM	13
1.1. The folk underground music as culture revivalism: mixing the sundanese traditional musical instruments and underground music as the struggle for culture sovereignty	15
Yusar Muljadji
1.2. When underground becomes (alter) mainstream: the commercial as transgression	23
Ion Andoni del Amo
1.3. "God Save the Queen". Media coverage of the punk music in the United Kingdom in the late 1970s.	31
Martin Husak
1.4. Memories of an underground scene at the Southern Brazil: between descriptions and meanings about one subterraneous past	39
Daniel Ribeiro Medeiros
Isabel Porto Nogueira
1.5. The emergence of Neue Deutsche Welle – a sociological study on an efficacious practice ascending from underground music to everyday culture.	49
Franka Schäfer
Anna Daniel
THEME TUNE 2 PORTO CALLING AGAIN: THE EVER CHANGING FEATURES OF PUNK AND POST PUNK IN LATE MODERNITY	57
2.1. Punk fanzines in Portugal (1978-2013): a mapping exercise	59
Pedro Quintela
Paula Guerra
2.2. Locked because of a look. The different risks you take when you look like a punk in West and East Germany (1977-1982)	69
Pierre Raboud
2.3. Punk representations in advertising: impurity, stigma and deviance	75
Cláudia Pereira
2.4. You can't blow up a symbolic relationship: spectacular and physical resistance of punk	81
Donal Fullam
2.5. Boots, braces and baseball bats: right-wing skinheads in the Czech Republic (1985-2015)	85
Jan Charvát
2.6. Peripheral subcultures. The first appropriations of punk in Germany and Italy	93
Mara Persello
2.7. Punk and New wave: destruction or doorway into Europe for the former socialist countries	99
Yvetta Kajanová
THEME TUNE 3 EVER FALLEN IN THE CITY: PERFORMING SCENES, PERFORMANCE SPACES, PERFORMING IMAGES	107
3.1. Performance art in Portugal in the mid-1980s? A drift towards music?	109
Cláudia Madeira
3.2. Transforming the city: shaping urban public space through collective street art initiatives.	117
Ágata Sequeira

THEME TUNE 4 UNDER CONSTRUCTION: TOWARDS A FRAMEWORK OF YOUTH SUBCULTURES, TRIBES, NEOTRIBES AND BANDS _____	129
4.1. Cattivi guagliuni : the identity politics of 99 Posse _____	131
Marcello Messina
4.2. Contemporary art and construction gender equality _____	137
Fellipe Eloy Teixeira Albuquerque
4.3. A possible herstory _____	145
Carla Genchi
4.4. Resistance? Through Rituals: politics and rock culture during the last military dictatorship in Argentina (1976-1983) _____	151
Julián Delgado
4.5. Problematizing the idea of subculture: a collective theoretical and practical approach _____	157
Fernando García Naharro
José Emilio Pérez Martínez
4.6. Retaking the tragedy: Creative practices and meanings of politics in the Bogotá hardcore _____	165
Iñaki Zárate Cantor
4.7. "I hope I die before I get old", an approach to British cinema and youth subcultures _____	171
José Emilio Pérez Martínez
THEME TUNE 5 DIY, ENTREPRENEURSHIP, SOCIAL VALUES AND MUSIC SCENES _____	179
5.1. The (pop)rock singer: a self-taught or skilled artist _____	181
Samuel Tomeček
5.2. The Cyber-guitar system: nuance in instrumental practice as a motivation for immediacy within gestural controllers _____	187
Jonathan Crossley
5.3. Social and generational inclusion: the "Social Crochet Program", from Coimbra _____	195
Marcia Regina Medeiros Veiga
5.4. The theatre in the places of social exclusion: preliminary analysis of the Pele - Espaço de Contacto Social e Cultural association activities _____	203
Irene Serafino
THEME TUNE 6 UNDERGROUND MUSIC SCENES, FRAGMENTATION, BORDERS AND DIASPORAS _____	209
6.1. Breaking the Electronic Sprawl _____	211
Hillegonda C Rietveld
6.2. Black Metal: history, trace of character and archetype _____	215
José Filipe P. M. Silva
6.3. Avant-garde rock, or the defiance of traditional musical domains _____	221
Jacopo Costa
6.4. "We're from Switzerland, that's a chocolate island in Sweden": understanding the situation of Swiss bands with regard to the indie rock rhizome _____	227
Loïc Riom
6.5. Mapping sounds in Porto Alegre: initial notes on the independent authorial music scene _____	235
Belisa Zoehler Giorgis
THEME TUNE 7 MUSIC AND PLEASURES, MEDIATION AND AUDIENCES _____	245
7.1. Street musicians: the strategies of mastering the social space of St. Petersburg _____	247
Aleksandra Kozyr
7.2. DIY in Morocco from the mid 90's to 2015: back to the roots? _____	255
Dominique Caubet

7.3. Deciphering the “alternative”: some preliminary contributions from the analysis of the audiences of a performing arts venue	263
Pedro Costa
Margarida Perestrelo
Giles Teixeira
THEME TUNE 8 MEDIATION, ARTIFACTS AND INDEPENDENT MUSIC AND ARTISTIC PRODUCTIONS	273
8.1. Freak encounters in the free press: sharing spaces in 1960s Los Angeles	275
Andre Mount
8.2. Nakedness, gender and print culture: bodies in the magazine “La Luna de Madrid”	283
Fernando García Naharro
8.3. Online dimensions of Russian subcultural scene: Padonki Community.	291
Elena Bulatova

