Contents

5 ABOUT THE AUTHORS

11 INTRODUCTION
Redefining art worlds in the late modernity
Paula Guerra and Pedro Costa

19 PART 1 | ART WORLDS, MOMENTS AND PLACES

21 CHAPTER 1
Slovenian visual artists throughout history: A network analysis perspective
Petja Grafenauer, Andrej Srakar and Marilena Vecco

39 CHAPTER 2
'From the night and the light, all festivals are golden': The festivalization of culture in the late modernity
Paula Guerra

69 CHAPTER 3
Dublin calling: Challenging European centrality and peripherality through jazz
José Dias

85 CHAPTER 4
Moments and places: The 'events' as a creative milieu between society, culture and emotions
Pierfranco Malizia

101 PART 2 | ART WORLDS IN MOTION

103 CHAPTER 5
Mutation of the poem on the web
Lígia Dabul

117 CHAPTER 6
The architect profession: Between excess and closure
Vera Borges and Manuel Villaverde Cabral

135 CHAPTER 7
'I make the product': Do-it-yourself ethics in the construction of musical careers in the Portuguese alternative rock scene
Ana Oliveira and Paula Guerra

149 CHAPTER 8
From the shadow to the centre: Tensions, contradictions and ambitions in building graphic design as a profession
Pedro Quintela

173 PART 3 | ART WORLDS AND TERRITORIAL BELONGINGS

175 CHAPTER 9
Celebrities of the Passinho: Media, visibility and recognition of youngsters from poor neighbourhoods
Cláudia Pereira, Aline Maia and Marcella Azevedo

191 CHAPTER 10
Redefining sounds, outlining places: Rock, scenes and networks
Tânia Moreira

215 CHAPTER 11
Gospel versus profane music in Slovakia
Yvetta Kajanová

233 PART 4 | ART WORLDS, CREATIVE COMMUNITIES AND PARTICIPATION

235 CHAPTER 12
Collaborative art: Rethinking the Portuguese theatre
Vera Borges

253 CHAPTER 13
Assembling the hybrid city: A critical reflection on the role of an Institute for (X) for a new urbanity
Carolina Neto Henriques

271 CHAPTER 14
Art programming as a test laboratory for social questions: the case of Horta do Baldio, a vegetable garden for agriculture
Cláudia Madeira