

Contents

INTRODUCTION	9
Underground music scenes and DIY cultures	11
Paula Guerra
Tânia Moreira
PART 1 MUSIC AND DIY CULTURES: DIY OR DIE!	15
1.1. Circuit-bending and DIY culture	17
Alexandre Marino Fernandez
Fernando Iazzetta
1.2. DIY culture and youth struggles for autonomy in Switzerland: distortion of the punk scene	29
Pierre Raboud
1.3. The street as canvas: street art and the construction of artistic careers	37
Ágata Dourado Sequeira
1.4. “Do it yourself” : Daniel Johnston’ s demon	49
Fabrício Silveira
Marcelo Bergamin Conter
1.5. Empowerment through design-doing experiences: workshops on nurturing creative makers for sustainability	59
Nicholas Torretta
Hessam Pakbeen
PART 2 PORTO CALLING: MEANINGS, DYNAMICS, ARTIFACTS AND IDENTITIES IN TODAY’S PUNK SCENES	77
2.1. Punk comix : a journey through the “flirting” of BD and punk in Portugal	79
Marcos Farrajota
2.2. What does the Balaclava stand for? Pussy Riot: just some stupid girls or punk with substance?	91
Alexandre M. da Fonseca
2.3. Aesthetics, anti-aesthetics and “bad taste” : a brief journey through Portuguese punk record covers (1977-1998)	103
Afonso Cortez Pinto	103
2.4. I’ ve got straight edge: discussions on aging and gender in an underground musical scene	125
Jhessica Reia
2.5. Between drums and drones: the urban experience in São Paulo's punk music	135
Débora Gomes dos Santos
2.6. What is punk rock? What is DIY? Masculinities and politics between l'art pour l'art and l'art pour la révolution	147
Martin Winter

2.7. “Fallen fallen is Babylon” . Polish punk rock scene in the 1980s _____	159
Piotr Zanko

PART 3 | MUSIC SCENES, POLITICS AND IDEOLOGY: SOCIAL-HISTORICAL MEMORIES AND CONTEMPORARY PRACTICES _____ 167

3.1. Independence or death: alternative music in the Brazilian 80's _____	169
Tereza Virginia de Almeida

3.2. Underground politics: “I am sure they know we are not the devil’ s son and that metal is against corruption” - heavy metal as (sub-) cultural expressions in authoritarian regimes _____	177
André Epp

3.3. Before the DIY: Jovem Guarda and youth culture in Brazil (65-68) _____	187
Marcelo Garson

3.4. Rock in Portugal: effects of the rock music in the Portuguese youth (1960 vs. 2014) _____	201
Ana Martins

3.5. "The Garage were I was born": Coimbra´s musical scene in the 1990´s _____	213
Pedro Emanuel Almeida Martins

3.6. Underground music in America’ s heartland: “Rising Appalachia” and traditional folk/pop as social protest _____	221
Michael Saffle
Jordan Laney

3.7. The influence of punk in the social movements _____	231
Liljana Siljanovska
Vlera Ejupi

PART 4 | CONTEMPORARY UNDERGROUND CULTURES’ AESTHETICS: BETWEEN THE DIGITAL, THE RETRO AND THE NOSTALGIA _____ 235

4.1. uTubo – development and application of an alternative digital musical instrument ____	237
Tiago Ângelo
Óscar Rodrigues
Nuno Peixoto de Pinho
José Alberto Gomes

4.2. One is the loneliest number: “one-man bands” and doing-it-yourselfes versus doing-it-alone _____	253
Matt Brennan

4.3. “We like raves, but...” Shituationism as a way out of the dilemma of hedonism ____	265
Benjamin Conti
Lukas Fakegruber

4.4. A survey on graphic communication and publishing practices in the Portuguese independent music scene _____	269
Manuel Oliveira Garcia
João Cordeiro

4.5. The subcultural scene economy of the Berlin techno scene _____	281
Jan-Michael Kühn

4.6. “Pimp your Pipes!” Knowledge, networks and DIY practices in the revival(s) of bagpipes	287
<hr/>
Thomas Kühn
4.7. Jazz scenes and networks in Europe: repackaging independent jazz - new strategies for emerging markets	295
<hr/>
Haftor Medbøe
4.8. Deka - skate, illustration and the other side of the skateboard	301
<hr/>
Jorge Brandão Pereira
Diogo Valente
Diogo Soares
Paula Tavares
4.9. Social media is the new punk. User experience, social music and diy culture	313
<hr/>
Giovanni Prattichizzo
PART 5 MUSICAL PRODUCTION, MEDIATION, CONSUMPTION AND FRUITION IN THE CONTEMPORANEITY	329
<hr/>
5.1. Musicality, culture and sociology of artistic-musical production of Ceará Blues	331
<hr/>
Carlos Rubens Garcia Alves
Kadma Marques Rodrigues
5.2. Dodging the middleman: Insights on disintermediation in the independent music sector	337
<hr/>
Francisco Bernardo
5.3. Materialities of the new: processes of destruction and construction in the work of Einstürzende Neubauten	349
<hr/>
Sandra Bettencourt
5.4. Isolation: towards the politics of new music: reflections on the momentum of new music in Portuguese cultural policy	359
<hr/>
Gil Fesch
5.5. “This is it!” : peak music experiences in the Brisbane indie music scene	373
<hr/>
Ben Green
5.6. Experimental music and the reprogramming of apparatuses	385
<hr/>
José Guilherme Allen Lima
5.7. Music as as a way of living: the case of Sonoscopia	393
<hr/>
Ana Luísa Veloso
Maria José Araújo
PART 6 UNDERGROUND MUSIC SCENES	405
<hr/>
6.1. Above and below ground	407
<hr/>
Will Straw
6.2. Why it makes sense to speak of emancipation: an overview of futureplaces as a current space for Punk to rise and reinvent	415
<hr/>
Heitor Alvelos
Anselmo Canha
Fátima São Simão

6.3. ‘Ironbound’ ? A sociospatial perspective on network diachrony in the Portuguese metal subfield _____	423
André Aleixo
6.4. Ideology and identity in underground circuits _____	457
Bernardo Álvares
6.5. Grito Rock Festival: from do it yourself to do it together _____	467
Daniel Domingues Barbosa Luiza Bittencourt
6.6. Developing tourism locally through a heavy metal music festival: an attempt to maximize resources and tourist services in Viana do Castelo, Portugal _____	477
Jorge Coelho
6.7. The disturbing voice of the lower-class: from eighteenth century “Gracioso” to punk rock _____	487
Isabel Pinto
6.8. Counterculture in the periphery of capitalism: Raul Seixas and the Brazilian underground scene in the early 1970s _____	499
Lucas Marcelo Tomaz de Souza
6.9. Sing it yourself! Uses and representations of the English language in French popular and underground music _____	513
Michael Spanu
PART 7 LOCAL SCENES, COMMUNITIES, IDENTITIES AND URBAN CULTURES _____	525
7.1. Creative social innovation - Human Being - Hip Hop for a Cause _____	527
João Paulo Ferreira
7.2. The multiple legitimacies of Tentacle Tribe, a dance company _____	539
Mary Fogarty Jonathan Osborn Deanne Kearney
7.3. Local scenes, conditions of music making and neoliberal city management - a case study of Hamburg, Germany _____	551
Robin Kuchar
7.4. Space and place in urban culture _____	563
Hélder Maia Catarina Braga Araújo
7.5. The “L” train in New York City: mediating the Brooklyn music scene(s) _____	569
Jonathan Rouleau
7.6. “But who doesn't know The Beatles anyway?” Young fans of New Beatlemania today _____	573
Nuné Nikoghosyan	