

Notes on Contributors

Tatiana Slama-Cazacu

slamacazacu@idilis.ro

Full Professor and Honorary Professor of the University of Bucharest (Romania). Honorary President of the International Society of Applied Psycholinguistics. Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Psycholinguistics. Author of almost 500 papers and approximately 40 books in several languages. Supervisor of many doctoral theses, in her country and abroad.

Miquel Siguan

msiguan@psi.ub.es

Professor Emeritus of the University of Barcelona (Spain). Doctor honoris causa of the Universities of Geneva and the Basque Country. Fellow of the European Academy. Founder of the Institute of Education Sciences of the University of Barcelona. Author of a huge amount of books and papers on subjects such as the psychology of language and language policies. Former consultant of the European Union on the topic of linguistic minorities and scientific director of the UNESCO's LINGUAPAX programme.

Diane Ponterotto

ponterotto@cc.univaq.it

Full Professor of the University of L'Aquila (Italy). Research and publications on several topics of Psycholinguistics and language policy. Former Secretary General of the International Society of Applied Psycholinguistics.

Stefania Stame

stame@psibo.unibo.it

Full Professor of General Psychology at the University of Bologna (Italy). Committee Members Coordinator of the International Society of Applied Psycholinguistics. Relevant research and publications on oral and written discourse comprehension, anaphors and inferences, selfnarratives and autobiographical memory, pragmatic aspects of communication, verbal and nonverbal interaction and doctor-patient interaction, among others.

Andrée Tabouret-Keller

atekatab@club-internet.fr

Professor Emeritus of the University Louis Pasteur (Strasbourg, France). President of the CMIEBP (Centre d'information sur l'éducation bilingue et plurilingue). Relevant research on the topic of multilingual education.

Maria da Graça Pinto

mgraca@letras.up.pt

Full Professor of the Faculty of Letters of the University of Porto (Portugal). President Elect (2004) of the International Society of Applied Psycholinguistics. Relevant research in the fields of Neurolinguistics and Applied Psycholinguistics. Author of a great number of articles, papers and books on her areas of study, currently with a strong interest in subjects like the language of the elderly, literacy and the challenges of new communication media on linguistic processing.